CHANGE FOR RANCHERS

TO SUPPLY CAVALRY HORSES

South African Commissioner Asks Canadians to Tender for Supplying 500 Horses for S.A. Constabulary.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—C. M. Speers, general colonization agent of the Department of the Interior here, says immigration is continuing this season longer than usual on account of the good harvest and for other reasons.
Mr. Speers says that he looks next year for an invasion of homeseekers from the United States.

A cable has been received from the High Commissioner for South Africa stating that five hundred horses will be required for the South African Constabulary between now and February and asking for tenders to supply them. The horses must be landed at Durban and the South African Constabulary can reject or accept the same within fifteen days after dis-embarking. The cable adds that there is a good market now in South Africa for horses. The horses are wanted about three quarters bred.

SOUTHERN ALBERTA MYSTERY

[The Frank Paper]
Mystery impenetrable surrounds a case the police have been endeavoring to find a solution of since Friday last. On that day a man's suit of clothes was found on the bank of Old Man river below the sluiceway with nothing to indicate how the outfit came there or who it belonged to. Efforts have since been made to find an explanation of the circumstance but without avail; the case remains a profound mystery and to all appearances is likely to continue so.

The find was made by Jack Ruus while out bird shooting Friday. As he was walking along the river he was surprised to see a man's clothing on the ground a few feet from the water. He did not think it likely anyone was in bathing this time of year so concluded some one was engaged in dynamiting fish and he had come upon the scene at an inopportune moment for that individual.
He accordingly laid low for a few minutes, expecting to see the man show himself, as he did not think anyone would remain in hiding long with nothing on when the weather was distinctly chilly. No one appeared however and he finally decided to examine the pile of clothes.
He found a complete outfit, under clothes, shirt, socks and outside suit.
Near by he found a gunny sack with two grouse in it. Mr. Ruus was completely mystified and concluding it was a case for the authorities, he proceeded to town and reported the find to the police.

Saturday Mr. Ruus accompanied Constable Thunder to the scene.
They found the clothes undisturbed, as they were the day before. The two made a search of the locality and on the opposite bank of the stream, found a fishing net with a number of fish in it which were beginning to rot, evidence that the clothes had been where they were found some days, provided they had not belonged to the same person. No note or scrap of paper of any kind could be found and nothing of any sort could be unearthed to throw any light on the mystery. The clothes were brought to town but no one has as yet identified them as belonging to any person and as far as inquiry about town could determine no one appears to know of any person who is missing. Up to this time there is not so much as a suggestion of an explanation of the peculiar case beyond the general theory that some person, either wary of life or demoted, committed suicide. Even that does not gain much credence; it seems highly improbable that the body would not have been found somewhere along so shallow a stream and again it seems quite improbable that any person could disappear from so small a community without some person missing him.

It is certainly a case of mystery profound.

POLITICAL

CALDER FOR SOUTH REGINA.
A large and enthusiastic convention of South Regina Liberals was held at Miles' one on Friday at which Hon. J.
A. Calder was nominated candidate for the coming Provincial contest.

CARDSTON CONSERVATIVE NO-MINEE
Cardston, Sept. 24.—At the Conservative convention held here yesterday, John S. Parrish of Mountain View, was unanimously nominated as candidate of the riding. Parrish is a merchant of Mountain View, settlement sixteen miles west of Cardston.
He is a leader in Sunday school work and a prominent church member of the dominant faith.

RED DEER LIBERALS MEET
Alexandra Hall, Red Deer was packed on Wednesday night with something near two hundred gentlemen, who upon entering the hall signed the Liberal platform adopted at the Calgary convention, thereby expressing their loyal adherence to its principles, and their willingness to be enrolled under the banner of the party. Officers were elected and arrangements made to hold a convention on the 28th.

WILL OPPOSE HAULTAIN
(Regina Standard)

Three more candidates for the local Provincial House have been nominated. Frank Moffat, of Weyburn, will contest South Qu'Appelle in the Liberal interests, and A.
Smith will contest Moosemin for the same party. J. T. Brown of Moosemin will contest Souris in the Conservatives interests.
In Moosemin, A. S. Smith, ex-M.L.A., will contest the riding against Dr.
Ellis, who is on the Conservative side.
Mr. Smith has been through several successful campaigns in the Moose-min district as Haultain candidate.

MEETING AT OLDS
Alberta: R. B. Bennett held a meeting at Olds on Saturday night. He was accompanied by Mr. Hiebert, the Conservative candidate of the Rose-bud riding. They found on arrival that Dr. Clark, the Liberal candidate for the riding was present.

The meeting was an interesting one and Dr. Clark more than held his own against both Conservative speakers.
In the course of the meeting it was announced that A. D. McConnell, the second Liberal candidate in the field had withdrawn from the contest.
But that does not leave Gleicher without a three-cornered fight. Joseph Reed a school teacher in the Kansas district, a Conservative in politics, has announced his candidature as an Independent candidate, opposed to the administration.

Y.P.S.C.E. SOCIAL

A social was given by the Presbyterian Young People's Society in the basement of the church, on Monday evening. The society are making a special effort to attract the strangers who are daily arriving in our city, early acquainting them with the steadying influences of an acquaintance with the church work.
The reception committee are to be commended on the manner in which they made the new comers feel at home and all hope the spirit shown will be maintained. Revs. McQueen and Reekie were present and gave very brief addresses, the balance of the program being given by the young people. Miss Jessie Cameron, Mrs.
Jessie Potter and Mr. Herb Bush sang solos, being well received. Miss Potter, on request of some visitors, sang "Loch Lomond" as an encore.
Miss F. McCrimmon, an instrumentalist, Miss McCrimmon, reading; Miss Sally McCrimmon, banjo solo; Messrs. Park and Walker, violin duet, were among those who contributed. A dainty lunch was served at the conclusion of the program which was not the least enjoyable event.

NORWAY AND SWEDEN

HAVE SETTLED THEIR DIFFER- ENCES.

Matters of Dispute During the Next Ten Years Will Be Referred to the Hague Tribunal.

Stockholm, Sept. 25.—The outline of the arrangement concluded between Norway and Sweden was given out here tonight. The main feature is a provision for referring the points in dispute between the two countries to the Hague Tribunal, for a period of ten years renewable for ten years unless protested by one or the other contracting parties, two years being necessary for such action. All questions but those touching the national honor of either country will thus come under arbitration. Further articles provided for the establishing of a neutral zone on the boundary limitations, for fortifications on the boundary, and regulations as to trade and mutual interchanges. The treaty is generally regarded here as a fair settlement, though it has yet to be ratified by the two Parliaments.
PARENT WILL BE BANQUETED
Ottawa, Sept. 25.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be present at a banquet in honor of Mr. Parent in Quebec on October 12.

MORE ABOUT CORPORATION CONNECTIONS.

The counter-blast manufactured by the Calgary Herald to draw attention from the "corporation connections" of Mr. R. B. Bennett, has rapidly developed into a boomerang. The charge of the Herald that a member of the legal firm to which Attorney-General Cross belongs had acted as solicitor for the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company was promptly and unequivocally denied by Mr. Cross. In an endeavor to substantiate the lawless charge the Herald printed on Saturday the following unadulterated fiction:

CHARLES CROSS COERCION ATTORNEY-GENERAL, STANDS CONVICTED

Charles Cross, attorney-general for the coercion government of Alberta, has specifically denied that he or any member of his firm has done any work for the Grand Trunk Pacific directly or indirectly, at any time.

The Herald herewith cites one specific instance:

When Judge Winchester was in Edmonton last fall holding the inquiry into the charge that the Grand Trunk Pacific was employing aliens contrary to the provisions of the agreement with the government, a member of the firm of Short, Cross, Biggar & Ewing acted for the company, defending the employers before Judge Winchester. This is the only business the G.T.P. has had in Edmonton, J. L. Biggar, chief counsel for the Grand Trunk railroad is an uncle of O. M. Biggar, of Mr. Cross's firm.

Further, the firm of Short, Cross, Biggar & Ewing, are appearing in litigation for the Canadian Northern at Edmonton.

These are the two corporations most interested in exploiting the North country. The Bulletin is authorized to state that NEITHER IN THE INVESTIGATION CONDUCTED BY JUDGE WINCHESTER NOR ON ANY OTHER OCCASION HAS A MEMBER OF THE FIRM TO WHICH MR. CROSS BELONGS ACTED FOR THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC COMPANY, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY.

ALBERTA CONSERVATIVES AND PROVINCIAL RIGHTS

Where, when, how and from whom did the Conservatives of Alberta get leave, liberty or license to repudiate the traditions of their party by posing as the friends of Provincial rights?

Was it from the Great Chieftain who amended the wording of the British North America Act to fix upon the Province of Manitoba, in system of separate schools which had no existence "by law" in that Province when it entered the union?

Was it from Sir Mackenzie Bowell who tried to force on an unwilling people a separate school system which they had abolished?

Was it from Premier Roblin who has confined at the establishment in Manitoba of a system of clerically controlled schools in defiance both of law and public opinion?

Was it from Hon. F. W. G. Haultain who so worded Clause Two of his Draft Bill as to bring Alberta into the union "as if it had been one of the Provinces originally joined" and thus amenable to every general and specific educational clause of the British North America Act?

Was it from their present "corporation-connected" leader who in 1896 stamped New Brunswick to assist the Federal co-ordinators to fix upon the Province of Manitoba a school system which the people of that Province had condemned and abolished?

Was it from Sir Charles Tupper, who received the Papal blessing for the services himself and party had rendered to the cause of separate schools?

Was it from Hon. George Eulas Foster who proposed in the House of Commons that the public lands should be administered as a source of revenue to recoup the Federal Government for the liberal subsidies granted to Alberta and Saskatchewan?

Was it from R. B. Bennett, whose only proposition up-to-date is that the public lands of Alberta might be sold at $2 per acre to provide Provincial revenues?

Was it from Dr. Patrick who served notice on Mr. Haultain that if the endorsement of the autonomy resolution in the Assembly meant the endorsement of Mr. Haultain's draft bill he and his followers would vote against the resolution, and was specifically assured by Mr. Haultain that the autonomy resolution was not and would not be construed as an endorsement of the draft bill?

There is nothing in the traditions of Conservatism or in the history of Alberta Conservatives to give ground or proof to the claim of friendship for Provincial rights.

There is in the history of the Conservative party in Federal and Provincial affairs all necessary proof that that party has made Provincial rights the victim and implement of party expediency.

There is not less proof that Alberta Conservatives are merely endeavoring to make the provincial rights cry the means of party advancement in Provincial and Federal politics today.

It was not until the text of the autonomy bills made it clear that the Provincial rights of Alberta and Saskatchewan had been so secured by law that these would never be available for manipulation from within or without that Federal Conservatism became the rampant champion of Provincial rights vague and undefined as distinguished from Provincial rights specified, defined and guaranteed.

It was not until the dire necessity of Federal Conservatism became apparent that Alberta Conservatives discovered the existence of those Provincial rights for which Liberalism has stood for generations, for which it stands today, and which it has incorporated into the bills by which Alberta and Saskatchewan became Provinces.

TOURING WESTERN CANADA

(Kansas Farmer)

It was a dream and a revelation, the trip of agricultural editors touring Western Canada. The party returned to St. Paul on September 8, after a trip of eighteen days. It was composed of about twenty-five editors and representatives of leading agricultural papers of the United States, who were the guests of the Western Canadian Immigration Association.

The papers represented on the excursion were the Kansas Farmer, the American Agriculturist, National Stockman and Farmer, Orange Judd Farmer, Indiana Farmer, Wallace's Farmer, Iowa Homestead, Successful Farming, Dakota Farmer, Farmer's Review, Farmers Guide, New England Homestead, The Farmer, Farm and Home, Farmers' Sentinel, Country Life in America, and the Commoner, of Lincoln, Neb. The daily press was represented by A. W. Brokaw, of the Minneapolis Tribune, Willis Williams, of the St. Paul Dispatch, and R. K. Lindsay, of the Montreal Star.

The party was in charge of Theodore M. Knappen, secretary of Western Canadian Immigration Association, Minneapolis, Minn., and A. D. Brightman of the firm of advertising agents of Brightman & Brown, St. Paul, Minn. These two splendid men of Minnesota made themselves famous for all time by their ideal management of the trip and the magnificent entertainment afforded their guests who were unanimous in declaring it was a trip of a lifetime. One secret of their success lay in permitting the editors a free rein in doing what they pleased and saying what they pleased, and when asked what they could do to reciprocate the royal favors bestowed, simply and modestly replied, "Tell the truth about Western Canada, as you saw it."

Among the other guests of the excursion party, in addition to the newspaper men were Hon. Henry Wolfer, Stillwater, and Hon. S. W. Leavitt, St. Paul, two State officials of Minnesota; also some officials of the Dominion Government, including Hon. C. W. Speers, General Colonization Agent; and Capt. F. C. Potts, and Mr. Maier, of the Department of the Interior. In the different provinces, the party had other guests for a time, which included province and railroad officials and leading business men of Western Canada.

This excursion of agricultural newspaper men in Western Canada was a wise business project of the Western Canadian Immigration Association for the purpose of correctly informing the publishers of the great farm papers of the United States of the wonderful resources, possibilities and attractions of Western Canada—which they regard as the "Last West"—and the great American Annex which they contend presents the greatest opportunity on the American continent for farmers, merchants, capitalists and investors. It is manifestly evident that the Western Canadian Immigration Association is doing more effective work for the rapid and substantial development of Western Canada and peopling the territory with a desirable and high-class immigration from the United States than any other known agency and certainly deserve the hearty co-operation and gratitude of the Dominion Government, as well as the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern and "Soo Line" of railways. In reference to the Association, the capable secretary, Theo. M. Knappen, said to the Kansas Farmer that the association was organized in January, 1904, for the purpose of developing Western Canada with people of the United States. Its membership comprises about 400 persons, which include, mainly land dealers and owners, railroad and elevator lines, bankers, merchants and other public-spirited citizens of the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta of Western Canada.

The trip to most of the editors, was a surprising revelation and showed that our Northern neighbors possess a wonderful heritage, a veritable agricultural empire in extent which today is only in its infancy of development of its natural resources. Our party travelled about 3,000 miles over the Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern railways, and about 400 miles by carriages on side-trips, so that we had a splendid chance to gain a comprehensive idea of the entire territory and its productions during the harvest season, and never before had the visitors seen such bountiful crops of wheat, barley and oats as were being garnered by the busy farmers. The harvest season over the territory runs from about August 15 to September 15. The Canadian August is very similar to our Kansas June during the harvest season.

It would require volumes to describe in general detail what the writer saw and learned, while on a three-weeks' trip, of the wonderful, fertile farm-lands, grazing districts, irrigation schemes, and other productive enterprises which afford such attractive inducements to the farmer, merchant or investor in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. The writer met quite a number of people, formerly of Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri, who are making fortunes in the country and highly enthusiastic as to the future of this great American Annex.

They are delighted with the "square" and the liberal treatment and live-and-let-live policies of the Canadian railroads.

The people that you meet are our people, and it is quite difficult to realize that you are not all the time on American soil and among your home people. Taxes are very low as the Dominion Government provides so much; and in the town and cities nearly all public utilities are owned by the municipalities. Public schools and churches are as prevalent as in Kansas; in fact the writer was wonderfully impressed that the whole country was simply an enlarged edition of Kansas, only better watered and more productive as a wheat country, but not so good for corn, which is grown to only a limited extent.

The chief attractions of Western Canada to American farmers are the sheep lands and the bountiful yields of small grains. Whether it is because the soil is still "new" or whether it is because it is exceptionally rich in the food of the wheat plant, it is indisputable that Western Canada is the most bountiful wheat-producing region on the continent. For 21 crops, Manitoba has maintained an average of about 29 bushels to the acre, and has had several crops that averaged more than 25 bushels. During the six years that agricultural statistics have been collected in the Territories the average yield of wheat per acre has been almost 20 bushels. Yields of as high as 40 bushels to the acre are not uncommon.

The classes of horses and cattle seen on the farms and plains of Western Canada was one of the surprising features of the trip. No scrub stock anywhere. Only improved animals are raised, and pure-bred sires are used almost exclusively. The horses are mainly the best draft breeds or standard-bred. The cattle are mainly Shorthorns, although Herefords and Galloways are quite numerous. Live stock everywhere was in splendid condition. The native grasses are very abundant and highly nutritious. It is quite a surprise to the writer that the winters had no terrors for the stockman or farmer.

In closing this brief general sketch of the trip, the writer hopes to present in subsequent articles something more in detail and with illustrations of things seen in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

The Balance Wheel

Look inside your watch a moment. The balance wheel is making 16,000 vibrations an hour, if it is in good condition. It will move less than one tenth of a drop of oil to make it run. But it needs that little badly. Don't take chances. Let me clean and oil and put your watch in order for a year. It will pay you and satisfy you.

THE MOUNTED POLICE

(Mail and Empire)

Off to the front part of the vast stage on which it has performed a leading part for the last generation the North-West Mounted Police will be gradually ushered by the new order that has been established in the West. Saskatchewan and Alberta having entered the provincial state, have become largely responsible for the domestic affairs of the portion of Canada south of the sixteenth parallel of north latitude, and extending from Manitoba on the east to British Columbia on the west. This great tract was the scene of the Mounted Police's chief activities, and with it will the early history of the force be inseparably connected. Further north, and especially in the Yukon District, the police have rendered valuable service, but the new provinces owe much more to it than all the remaining parts of the Territories. It was the protection of life and property, the restraint of the native wild spirits, and of the alien lawless ones that sought refuge and adventure in Canada's interior. It is not enough to say that it was the establisher and maintainer of order in the Territories. It was actually, in large measure, the civilizer of elements of the population, and it did more than any other agency to assimilate the social ideas of the heterogeneous people by whom the country was colonized.

A few days ago there passed through Toronto on his way to the Pacific Coast an Englishman who must have been put in a reminiscent mood by the inauguration proceedings at Edmonton and Regina. This was Major-General G. A. French. He was the man who organized the North-West Mounted Police, and was its first commissioner. That was in 1873. One of the decorations he received was earned by his command of the notable expedition of the following year. In 1874 he led the force from the Red River to the Rocky Mountains, one of the most remarkable advances of a military body of which there has been any record on this continent. Detachments of Mounted Police have since made long journeys through the interior wilderness. The men have roamed all over the West, from the Northern Pacific to Hudson's Bay, and have experienced the peculiar hardships of the overland route to the Yukon, but Colonel French's expedition from the middle of Manitoba to the western boundary of the new Province of Alberta was the first of these astonishing movements. At that time the force was about three hundred strong and it had largely to do its own exploring, for the Hudson's Bay Company was not eager to impart much of the knowledge it had acquired of the country it sold to the Dominion.

—Albertan Hon. Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia for the Dominion of Canada, will reach Calgary tomorrow at noon. He will be entertained at luncheon at the Alberta hotel, will be driven about the city during the afternoon and will be entertained at a dance in the Armouries in the evening. He will remain in the city until Wednesday noon.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION

(From the Eye Opener)

We are of opinion that this school clause cry of the Conservative politicians will be productive of more harm than good. It certainly will not prove a vote-winner, and can at best only serve the unworthy purpose of fostering race and creed prejudices. This is not desirable. It is not the people themselves who are up in arms, as the orators would have their audiences believe; it is but the professional politicians crying in the wilderness. The cry of coercion carries with it a sensationalism which lends brilliancy to platform pyrotechnics, but sober-minded people are not caught with it.

The Eye Opener has consistently remained from joining in the rumpus over the school question. Once in a while, certainly, we have given vent to mildly worded expressions of disappointment over the new provinces not being trusted with their own educational enactments, especially as no change from the present satisfactory and entirely harmless system of separate schools was contemplated by our own leaders; but, apart from the impolite slight to our dignity, we have been unable to discover anything to roar about.

The school clauses are all right as they are. Not a particle of difference will be found between the educational work of the future and the educational work of the past. Doctrinal religious teaching is barred, secular instruction alone being permitted during school hours. Professional politicians have no more moral right to fuss over the souls of our little children than three-card monte men have to revise the New Testament. The welfare of the children is of secondary importance to them. They want to wield the school cry as a club to drive the Grits out of power and get in themselves. As an impelling motive this sounds base, but is it not so? Why certainly.

These school clauses have been virtually approved by the two great leaders themselves—Borden and Laurier. When Laurier made his speech introducing these clauses, Borden got up and announced that he did not propose to make political capital out of the school question. Subsequently, however, his followers forced him to attack the clause in parliament, but his heart was not in it.

Laurier intended preserving the present separate school system in its entirety, though he wanted more intimate control over it by the provinces. The lifting of the school control out of provincial jurisdiction is all that Mr. Laurier kicks about. The educational system itself he regards as all right.

Then again, at the Red Deer convention, when the Conservatives held a short white neck, the delegates left out all reference to the school clauses in the first draft of their platform. They did not wish to bother with it at all. The turbulent spirits, however, talked the convention into doing what it really did not wish to do, to wit, incorporate a well slivered school plank in the platform.

Furthermore, the Pincher Creek Conservatives in convention last Friday decided unanimously not to further agitate the school question, taking the highly sensible ground that such action would only lead to unending trouble among the people of the west.

This convention likewise put on record its complete satisfaction with the present school system in Alberta. Hair on you, Pincher!

It was madness to start up the machinery of our Provincial Government with a series of explosions. Such folly must retard our progress. If the Conservatives are bound that these educational clauses be submitted to the judicial committee of the Privy Council (and this will be the ultimate solution some day) they surely are aware that they will have to wait until they get into power. Then they can have their little old test case, and R. B. Bennett can cross over to England and tell the Lord Chancellor and the other legal whitties all about it. In the meantime it behoves the members whom we elect to confine themselves to the drier task of directing and controlling the affairs of the new province with such wisdom as God has given them, guiding us in a prosperous course, and avoiding those damnable contentions of party.

And why, pray, should we not have separate schools when to all intents and purposes they are "national" so far as the course of instruction is concerned? If there were the slightest danger of the Dominus vobiscum feature bubbling in, we as a Scotch Presbyterian would be the first to cry "Foul!" But there is no such danger. The politicians know this perfectly well. They simply cannot let go of the effective platform booby, coercion. As an stirrer up of susceptible audiences it is simply immense.

What is really needed these days is better performance of parental duties at home, especially in the line of example, so that the children may grow up to self-respecting manhood and womanhood. The politicians do not lay any emphasis at all on parental responsibility. All they do is to frighten people with section 17, clauses 1, 2 and 3 of the Alberta Act.

BAPTIST CONVENTION

The Baptist churches of Alberta met in their annual association at Ponoka, September 12 to 14. There were present also Rev. W. T. Stackhouse, B.A., General Superintendent; Rev. D. B. Harkness, B.A., superintendent of missions among the foreign peoples of the West, and Rev. A. T. Robinson, who represented the work of the Industrial Guild.

Rev. Alex. McDonald, of Leduc, who for forty years has been engaged in missionary work in the west, was elected Moderator, while his wife was elected to preside at the meetings at which the ladies discussed their work.

The reports from the various churches show progress along all lines; the work among the Germans and Scandinavians being particularly encouraging.

The addresses and papers on the various topics were inspiring and practical. The Association sermon was preached by Rev. A. Black, M.A., of Edinburg, from the text John 17:17. Rev. D. B. Harkness gave a very interesting address along the line of his work. Pastor Daniel, of Red Deer, after introducing the subject in a very practical manner conducted a conference on personal work. Pastor Corey, of Strathcona, gave an address on the Sunday school in which he emphasized the need of co-operation; Pastor Corey's address on Christian Education was excellent and to the point.

Several resolutions were passed among which was a resolution on the educational clause of the Autonomy Bill, in which the churches in the Association condemned the clause as unconstitutional; a resolution on the question of the liquor traffic was also passed in which it was suggested that it would be in the interest of the cause of temperance if in the near future a convention representing all Alberta could be called.

THE REVENUE FROM LANDS

(Calgary Albertan)

The new province of Alberta has in its treasury at the present time, $375,000, which the new treasurer received from the Dominion Government as revenue in lieu of the lands which the Dominion Government continues to administer.

The lands department has until recent years been a losing concern, and even yet the revenue from the department is practically nothing. This is the case even though we do not place against the department the large sum of money annually expended upon immigration.

The revenue of the lands in the province of Alberta barely pays for the administration of the lands if it does pay for the administration of the lands.

The gross revenue derived from the control and sale of lands in Alberta, amounted last year to the sum of $250,000.

The details of the receipts are as follows:

From Dominion lands—

Calgary.....$56,711.98
Edmonton.....86,046.18
Lethbridge.....38,495.78

$181,193.94

From timber, hay licenses, grazing privileges—

Calgary.....$30,200.00
Edmonton.....42,387.45
Lethbridge.....258.38

$72,735.83

This means a grand total of $253,929.77.

That is the total revenue possible from the lands of the province of Alberta, unless the policy of free homesteads is to be abandoned, something which we cannot afford at the present time or at any future time.

The net revenue is difficult to arrive at, but with the amount paid for salaries in Alberta and in Ottawa, and for numerous expenditure outside of salaries, it is safe to say that the cost of maintenance of the lands department of Alberta is at least $250,000.

And that is after the lands department has been carefully organized.

The bargain that Alberta got from the Dominion in regard to the financial terms is admirable.
